Area Banks Give Generously to DHIC

Raleigh, NC — DHIC, Inc., a non-profit organization serving low-income Triangle residents, has received 2010 donations from three area banking partners.

- Bank of America has provided a $17,500, and is the organization's largest corporate supporter this year;
- BB&T has made a $5,000 commitment; and,
- First Citizens Bank has provided a $1,000 contribution.

DHIC will invest these grants in a variety of community development activities that support homeowners, prospective first-time homebuyers, and low-income families in need of affordable housing in Wake County and beyond.

Based in Raleigh, DHIC. has built or rehabilitated more than 1,500 apartments and 400 homes for sale in the greater Research Triangle area, and provides education and counseling to more than 200 first-time homebuyers annually. More about DHIC, Inc. can be found at www.dhic.org.
