Brad Worley Joins DHIC Board

DHIC, Inc. is pleased to announce the appointment of Brad Worley, President of Worley Reporting, a statewide independent court reporting service, to its Board of Directors. Admitted to the N.C. Bar, Mr. Worley holds B.A. and J.D. degrees from UNC-Chapel Hill, and is a M.B.A. candidate at Meredith College.

Mr. Worley was appointed to replace Board member Isabel Mattox, who has joined the City of Raleigh's Planning Board. He is one of five board members appointed by the City of Raleigh to seats on DHIC's board.

DHIC, Inc. is a non-profit developer of affordable rental and homeownership housing, serving Raleigh and the greater Research Triangle area. DHIC owns over 1,400 affordable apartments and provides counseling and education to nearly 300 prospective first-time homebuyers annually. More about DHIC can be found at www.dhic.org.
