

Raleigh to present appearance awards

From Staff Reports

RALEIGH -- One community activist and the developers of seven Raleigh properties will be honored today as the 2005 winners of the city's Sir Walter Raleigh Awards for Community Appearance. The development and conservation projects will be honored at a public ceremony at 7 p.m. at Exploris in downtown Raleigh.

The award winners were cited for their contributions toward making Raleigh a more attractive and livable city. They were selected from a field of nearly 30 nominees by an independent panel.

This is the awards program's 23rd year. It is coordinated by the Raleigh Appearance Commission.
